The Lunch & Learn series for next Fall is complete with six very different topics presented by experts in their field. Lunch & Learn is a free program, open to the public, no registration necessary, so feel free to invite your friends and neighbors.

As in past years, the programs will begin at noon and end at 1 p.m. every Wednesday for 6 weeks beginning in early September. One thing that will be different this Fall is the location of Lunch & Learn. We are moving to the Global Resource Center on campus, to rooms A, B, and C. There is plenty of parking available behind the GRC, at the Fine Arts Center.

Course Info Posted in GRC

If you are looking for a course location and starting time, they are listed on a WILL bulletin board in the Global Resource Center just inside the ground floor exit facing 12th street. The board is near the entrance to room D.
